Hear yea hear yea, h e r e ' s t he N e W s!

[Announcement]

Home Base is launched! gasp uproarious applause I dub all thee Hubbles, after the Hub Island.

I can't reiterate enough that it's a beta version, and there are bugs - so please let us know about anything you find over in this thread: /354371

I won't be able to respond to everyone in that thread, but I'm compiling all the bugs/requests/feedback people have and sharing it with the rest of the team so we can keep making better updates.

[Question Corner]

@Everyone Looks like 2-3 days ago Phil got the flu and it caused a bunch of issues with post approvals. (Just to be clear - Phil is not a person, I just enjoy the name for the filter you've come up with) I'm looking into exactly what happened. If it's possible for us to do so, would you prefer the posts you attemped to make to all of a sudden come through? Or would you rather just try reposting the ones that are still relevant?

@PhantomDraco I didn't answer because it was coming out the following day~! Surprise! :D There will be special events in Home Base, esp over the summer.

@Galaxian A motto, hm... I have to think more about this, but for now here's this:

-Talk things out in a thread together if you have a disagreement
-Remember that the filter causes post delay, and miscommunications happen
-Don't be afraid to take a break from the forums if you're getting stressed or for any reason
-Recognize that others have different backgrounds and upbringings than you
-Remember that the forums are big, you can join a different RP if things aren't working out, or decide to compromise
-Above all else: show respect to each other!

@Nightengale I'm a little scared but also in games I'm often a rogue/thief-type character with poison weapons so I can appreciate.

@Cyclone Math = Truth

@Glamour Definitely looks like something happened 2 or so days ago where a bunch of posts got lost in post approval. The ones that didn't come through for you weren't rejected, they just weren't....anything-ed. You can try re-posting, whatever happened over the weekend is over now.

@Dog Yes, a few months ago we removed a number of the older MBs.

@Cloudburst I guess something was going on with the filter and siggies weren't coming through or were being left for me to approve. I found a whole bunch of sigs and was able to approve them. You should see the updated version now :) Also....were you the one who beat my Alpha Blitz highscore?

@Andromeda I'm finding out for you. Many of your posts over the weekend that did not come through, obviously should have. Nothing is wrong with Elvis Presley's hair color. You had one form that I see did get rejected by the filter, for Olli. There's one sentence in it ("poison first, interrogate later") that might be catching it. Again, overall I really don't see anything wrong with the form. You can try it again with/without that line.

@Ishmael Big Oof. I'm sorry :-/

[Forum Prompts]

I've been sneaking Home Base-related things into the prompts every once and a while...for months wahaha. I like to think of the giant book in the giant tree as a book-meteor that crash landed onto the island. Where do you think it came from?

Hmm, maybe I should be posting this on the Homebase Bug thread but it's not really a bug. I'm just confused about how Alpha Blitz and the Events work. I once clicked 'Join' on an Event. I was teleported to Wings of Fire island, but nothing really happened. Can you clarify on what I'm supposed to do when I get there? It was the Scavenger Hunt Event. Thanks! Oh, and by the way, I like the name you came up with for us Hubbles. I'm putting it in my signature now.

Hear yea hear yea, it's the new news.

[Announcement]

WoF Graphic Novel #2 is out today! Wahoo! Can't wait to hear what you think of it ^_^

I hate saying things like "the filter should be better now" and then it goes ahead and causes issues for y'all again. So while it should be better, I've been told it's better, please let me know if it's not. When I see an unusual amount of complaints, I know something is up so I can investigate and pester people about it.

[Question Corner]

@everyone please let me know if you still have a post that hasn't come through. Phil got through the whole backlog of posts so everything should've come through. If there are repeated posts that bother you, you can report them to me (make sure you do this on the same account you made the post with so I know it's you) and I'll delete them for you.

@Nightworld I did enjoy school, even if it was stressful at times. I was pretty aimless during high school, I had no idea what I wanted to do. At a certain point in college it clicked that working in games was a real, viable thing one could do with their life.

@Cloudburst Now King Keith has beaten us both....we must topple his Alpha Blitz reign.

@dragoncat9085 I heard such good things about it! Can't wait to go see it :)

@Singularity I think it's great, can't wait to read more :)

@Grendel Yessss I'm so glad you like Hubbles!

So, events - Clicking "Join" right now takes you to the island where an event will take place, you need to hang out there until it's time for the event to start (that's what the countdown clock is telling you next to the "join" button). Once the countdown clock reaches 0 and you're on the island, you'll see a pop-up like "Scavenger Hunt is starting soon! Talk to Tsunami to join." In a bug-free world, then you'd talk to Tsunami and you'd join the event game. Unfortunately, sometimes Scavenger Hunt has issues and doesn't start. All the other event games do I believe - I haven't run into any issues where they haven't at least.

This is an example of confusing language on our part. When you see the word "join", you think you'll join the event immediately right? And it's confusing when you don't. Or at least you'd expect to be transported in front of the character you're supposed to talk with to start the event game. Making that more clear in-game is something we're have on our list of "things to improve."

[Forum Prompts]

Your room is pitch black save the blue glow of your laptop screen illuminating the air. You peek at the clock, it's 2:13am. You know you should sleep, but you can't stop cbrowsing your recommended videos and delving deeper and deeper into a video streaming vortex. You click on a video and then the next one and the next...they start to all blur together into some kind of makeup tutorial-lets play-reaction video-cat riding a roomba-mashup. Then you click on the next one. It's just a white screen at first. Then someone shifts into view. "Hi past self. If you're watching this, it's not too late." The person in the video....is you.

[Warnings]

@Pluto I'm going to give you a 24hr break from the forums. I've given you a few warnings about respecting the desire of others to take a break from the forums/certain conversations, and it doesn't seem like you're acknowledging those warnings. I'd like you to respect the time and mental health of your friends, and right now you're not. Take this break to think about how you're talking to your friends. Think about how you'd feel if someone you considered a really good friend started to get mad whenever you didn't answer their messages right away. You could be in a movie, at school, eating dinner, spending time with other friends - whatever. They'd still get mad. How would that make you feel? Would you start to get stressed out whenever you saw their messages because you worried they'd get mad at you?

I've said this before but I'll say it again: while people certainly find great support here and talk about their lives, this forum is not equipped to be anyone's sole support network. Please talk to adults or peers IRL or in an online community dedicated to talking about specific issues you're facing when you need immediate support.
